Ref. No. AAVS/2026/010

Dated...11/5/26.....

PURPOSE

This MoU is intended to establish a framework of cooperation between AAVS TEXTILES and AGC to promote academic collaboration in Fashion & Textile education, support innovation, and enhance design and technical skill development for professional growth of B.Sc. Fashion Design students through structured hands-on practice, training, and real-time industrial exposure.

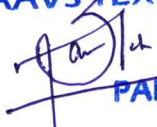

The objectives include:

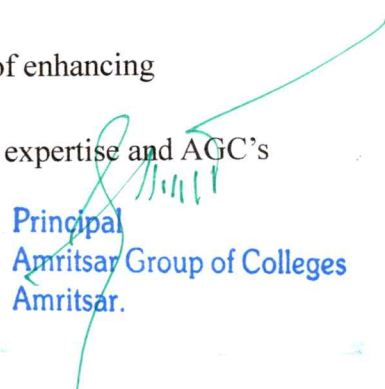

- To establish Industry-Institute collaborative programs bridging the academic-industry gap in the textile and fashion sector.
- Organizing guest lectures, design workshops, fabric technology sessions, and fashion trend seminars by AAVS TEXTILES experts on the AGC campus.
- Supporting campus placements and providing career opportunities in textile, apparel, and fashion domains.
- Enabling faculty-industry collaboration for updating teaching pedagogy as per industry practices.
- Exploring mutually beneficial initiatives in digital fashion, sustainable textiles, and technology-driven apparel solutions.
- Enabling faculty-industry interaction to align teaching methods with current industrial practices.
- Encouraging industrial visits for students in AAVS TEXTILES operational units and technical facilities.

1: CO-OPERATION

- Both AAVS TEXTILES and AGC share mutual goals of enhancing student employability in textile and fashion industry.
- Cooperation will leverage AAVS TEXTILES industry expertise and AGC's academic resources.
